Who is providing this notice?

Automotive Credit Corporation

What we do

How does Automotive Credit Corporation protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

We restrict access to nonpublic information to employees, as necessary to service your account. We safeguard nonpublic information consistent with industry standards for similar sized companies.

How does Automotive Credit Corporation collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- apply for financing or give us your income information
- pay us by check or give us your employment history
- give us your contact information

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes— information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.
